Section V

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL MEETINGS

Meetings shall be held every two (2) weeks during the academic year, as called by the President, or as needed. Meetings shall be open unless an executive session is required for discussion of bargaining or issues pertaining to confidential individual rights or personnel. At least 24-hour notice of all regular and special meetings shall be given.

ARTICLE V. ASSOCIATION MEETINGS

There shall be such membership meetings as are called by the Executive Council or the President or by petition of twenty percent (20%) of the members. There shall be a meeting to approve the concepts and goals of bargaining, a meeting to ratify tentative contract agreements, and establish local dues.

ARTICLE VI. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section I

BALLOTING. All election dates shall be set by the Executive Council consistent with the Constitution and By-Laws. The Secretary-Treasurer shall prepare the ballots and attend to such other details as necessary to implement the balloting. Ballots shall be counted by two officers or members of the Executive Council who are not candidates for office.

Section II (as amended May 2015)

VACANCIES. In case an office becomes vacant, with the exception of Immediate Past President, a special election will be held within thirty (30) days of the vacancy or, in the event of vacancy during summer at the discretion of the Executive Council, the special election may be held within thirty (30) days after the beginning of fall Quarter.

Executive Council member-at-large vacancies of two quarters or less may be filled by appointment by the President.

Section III (as amended May 2008)

NOMINATIONS. Nominations for Executive Officers and Executive Council members-at-large shall be made to the Secretary-Treasurer by any member of the Association and/or by a nominating committee. Nominations shall be closed at least one (1) week prior to the elections and a list of candidates published.

A nominating committee, chaired by the BCAHE Vice-President and including no more than three members appointed by the Executive Council shall oversee the nomination process and recruit additional candidates for positions that do not have sufficient nominees. The nominating committee will attempt to recruit at least two candidates for each office. The same procedure will be followed in the event an office becomes vacant.

ARTICLE VII. TRAINING OF OFFICERS AND THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Section I

MEETINGS. It shall be the duty of all newly elected officers upon the date of their election until they take office to serve as ex-officio, non-voting members of the Executive Council.

Section II

ACTIVITIES. It shall be the duty of the outgoing officers and the Executive Council to adequately prepare, in spring quarter, the incoming officers and members-at-large for their duties. Such preparation shall include training sessions, participation (non-voting) in the Executive Council, distribution of agendas, minutes, policies, working drafts, etc. The objective of such training will be to provide an orderly transition from the old to new personnel.

ARTICLE VIII. REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

Any elected officer or at-large member of the Executive Council may be removed from office by a two-thirds in-person vote of the total membership at a meeting duly called for that purpose. Such meeting shall be established by the Executive Council within fifteen (15) days of receipt of a petition signed by fifty-one (51%) of the membership, which states the intent and general basis for the proposed removal. The Executive Council shall establish who will preside at such a special meeting. The officer or Executive Council member-at-large in question shall have the right to ask questions and refute statements and to speak or appoint others to speak on his/her behalf.

ARTICLE IX. AMENDMENTS

Section I

PROPOSAL. Amendments to this constitution may be proposed by any member of the Association, provided that the amendment is presented in writing.

Section II

NOTICE AND PUBLICITY. After an amendment or amendments to the Constitution have been proposed, a copy thereof shall be delivered or mailed or otherwise made public to each member of the Association. Such delivery, mailing, or publication must be completed at least fifteen (15) days prior to the regular or special meeting at which the amendment is to be voted upon. Publication shall include the hour and date of the general or special meeting or date and time of the poll.

Section III

ADOPTION. Any amendment may be adopted by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present (or represented by written proxy) and voting provided that such vote is taken at a regular meeting or a special meeting for this single purpose or as a result of two-thirds affirmative signed vote from a poll conducted by the President and Vice President, provided that Section II of this article has been complied with.

Section IV

EFFECTIVE DATE. An amendment to this Constitution shall become effective immediately upon its adoption unless otherwise provided for in the amendment.

Section V

RECORDING OF AMENDMENT. Any new amendment or changes to the Constitution shall be appended to this Constitution within 10 days, as a permanent record.
